

BERKELEY COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA

Unmatched Incentives

South Carolina offers some of the most appealing incentives in the country. This, coupled with low utility rates and reasonably priced site and building options, make Berkeley County, South Carolina one of the most sought-after locations for business. In fact, Berkeley County is often referred to as the destination for the next generation of business.

South Carolina has a number of statutory tax credits. These often offset state income taxes, and in some instances, corporate license taxes:

- Job Tax Credit
- Research and Development Tax Credit
- Corporate Headquarters Credit
- Enhanced Corporate Headquarters Credit
- Investment Tax Credit
- Port Volume Increase Credit
- Corporate Income Tax Moratorium
- Job Development Credits
